

Basic Detail Report

Title Ambassadors of Folk: Connecticut Master Traditional Artists -

Jampa Tsondue

Date 2010

Primary Maker Jampa Tsondue

Medium born digital images

Description 2015.196.247.1: born digital image showing Tibetan thangka painter

Jampa Tsondue with his family visiting the Ambassadors of Folk: Connecticut

Master Traditional Artists exhibit at the Institute for Community Research. L to R:

daughter Yangchen, Jampa, Yeshi Dorjee, Jampa's mother, Kunga Choekyi.

Behind them are three Tibetan thangkas on healing arts ink, natural pigments, colloidal gold on prepared cotton canvas, 2008-2009. 2015.196.247.2: born digital image showing Yeshi Dorjee and Jampa Tsondue viewing the exhibit.

Behind them on the left: Shengzhu Chen's Chinese textiles. Behind them on the right: Aldona Saimininkas' Lithuanian arts. 2015.196.247.3: born digital image showing Kunga Choekyi looking at Shengzhu Chen's Chinese textiles. Romulo

Chanduvi's Peruvian carved balcony is at the left. 2015.196.247.4: born digital image showing Kunga Choekyi and Jampa looking at Aldona Saimininkas'

Lithuanian painted eggs. 2015.196.247.5: born digital image showing Kunga

Choekyi looking at Aldona Saimininkas' Lithuanian straw mobile.