

Basic Detail Report

Title Mas Camp Exhibit Opening, Graduation, and Performance, 2012

Date 2012 August 22

Primary Maker Hartford Steel Symphony

Medium born digital photography

Description Photographs of the Mas Camp exhibition opening, graduation, and performance on August 22, 2012. The exhibition was on view at the Institute for Community Research (ICR) Gallery. (.1) Image of the back of Queen costume on display in the ICR gallery. (.2-.3) Images of the Junior Queen costumes displayed in the ICR gallery. (.4) Image of the front of the Queen costume on display in the ICR gallery. (.5-.6) Images of the Hartford Steel Symphony performance at the exhibit opening and graduation. (.7) Image of Shawn Beals viewing the Junior Queen backpack on display at the ICR gallery. (.8) Image of Mas Camp educator Lerry Cooper in the ICR Gallery holding the trophy for Best Costume won by the Mas Camp Exotic One's Band at the West Indian Independence Day Parade. (.9-.10) Images of Mas Camp co-director Junior Miller handing students their graduation certificates at the Mas Camp exhibit and graduation event. (.11) Image of the students holding their certificates. (.12) Image of Mas Camp costume designer Q Delpeche in the ICR Gallery holding the trophy for Best Costume won by the Mas Camp Exotic One's Band at the West Indian Independence Day Parade. (.13-.14) Images of Mas Camp Artistic Performance Director Harold Springer with Mas Camp volunteers lining Moko Jumbie stilt walker and dancer Mellissa Craig at the Mas Camp exhibit and graduation event.