Description (a) Interview with Wuily Blectrict. Interviewed by Peter Moran on July 21, 2022 at New Haven Free Public Library Ives Branch, 133 Elm Street, New Haven. (b) Photograph of Wuily Blectrict taken at his interview. He was interviewed as part of the Connecticut Historical Society's Community History Project discussing his experience during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Wuily Blectrict was born and raised in New Haven, Connecticut. He had a relatively positive experience of the COVID-19 pandemic when he focused on taking care of himself. He works part time as a security guard, work he enjoys. In his interview, he discusses vaccines, personal decisions, and the “honor system.” Wuily used this time to discuss a social contract, where people provide one another with information necessary to make decisions about safety and health. He describes progressing and evolving through the pandemic by focusing on himself, using common sense to stay safe. He has yet to catch COVID-19.
