

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Peter Moran

Date 2022 August 18

Medium born digital audio file

Description Interview with Peter Moran. Interviewed by Abbie Cowan on August 18, 2022 at the Connecticut Historical Society, One Elizabeth Street, Hartford. At the time of his interview, Peter Moran was an intern at the Connecticut Historical Society and a graduate student at Central Connecticut State University studying public history. Peter discusses how the pandemic prompted a career change leading him to go back to school and move across the country in the midst of a global health crisis. He goes into detail about the uncertainty of a virus that spreads so quickly and his thoughts regarding the community's well-being in terms of masks and vaccines. To end his interview, Peter discusses why he joined the Community History Project and describes his time at the Connecticut Historical Society.

Dimensions Duration: 1 Hour, 20 Minutes, 36 Seconds