

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Cara Turner

Date 2022 August 22

Medium born digital audio file

Description (a) Interview with Cara Turner. Interviewed by Peter Moran on August 22, 2022 at Otis Library, 261 Main Street, Norwich. (b) Photograph of Cara Turner taken at her interview. She was interviewed as part of the Connecticut Historical Society's Community History Project discussing her experience during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Cara Turner's family has lived in Norwich for generations. In her interview, Cara spoke at length about her community and family. She is involved in multiple amateur sports leagues in Norwich, and described what it was like during the COVID-19 pandemic. She supported mask and vaccine mandates. Cara also spoke at length about Black Lives Matter and her perspective on racism and raising Black children. Cara discussed mental health and the stigma against mental health in the Black community.

Dimensions Duration: 2 Hours, 1 Minute, 3 Seconds