

Basic Detail Report

Title George Edmund Stiles

Date about 1847

Primary Maker Alexander Hamilton Emmons

Medium Painting; oil on canvas in frame

Description Portrait of George Edmund Stiles as a boy of about four years of age, painted by an unknown artist in the style of Alexander Hamilton Emmons. Stiles is standing next to a large tree, wearing a belted dress over pantaloons. In his left hand, he is holding a broad-brimmed hat down by his side, and in his right he is holding a bunch of concord grapes. In the background there is a sunset scene with a body of water and mountains.

Dimensions Stretcher (height x width): 39 1/2 × 29 1/2in. (100.3 × 74.9cm)

Frame (height x width): 44 1/8 × 33 7/8in. (112.1 × 86cm)