

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Janice F. Breer

Date 2007 January 30

Medium digitized audio cassette tape

Description Audio cassette tape of an interview with Janice F. Breer. She was interviewed on January 30, 2007 by Bruce M. Stave and Sondra Astor Stave at the Staves' home in Coventry, Connecticut. Janice Breer was born and raised in Manchester, Connecticut. She attended Elmira College for two years, then transferred to Florida State University, graduating in 1958. She discusses the two restaurants at G. Fox & Co., the more casual restaurant and the Connecticut Room. She talks about how she met Beatrice Fox Auerbach when she was a child. She discusses what Hartford was like when she was a teenager. In 1956, she purchased her first wedding dress at the G. Fox Specialty Shop. She explained the differences in the store from a customers point of view after the May Company purchased it. She shopped at G. Fox from the time she was a child until the store closed in 1993. She describes G. Fox at Christmas. She ends the interview discusses where she shopped after G. Fox closed.

Dimensions Duration: 35 Minutes, 14 Seconds