Title Pope Park Playground, Hartford

Date 7 April 2020

Primary Maker Kerri Ana Provost

Medium born digital photography

Description Born digital photograph of the Pope Park Playground. Yellow caution tape had been placed around the playground to indicate it was off limits during the COVID-19 Pandemic. The tape was broken days after it was installed. A sign was posted at the parking lot entrance announcing that the playscape was closed. Most of the park use comes from families who walk into the park and would not see the entrance sign.
