

Basic Detail Report

Title Dress and Slip

Date about 1932

Primary Maker Helen E. Gilbert

Basic Detail Report

Medium Slip (.b): Machine-stitched rayon, cotton, and silk, with metal snaps.

Description Slip (.b): Woman's below-knee-length slip of white rayon, closely fitted in the top. The left side opening fastens with six metal snaps. The shoulder straps are narrow strips of cream-colored cotton. The bottom edge of the rayon is cut in wide scallops, sewn to a bias-cut flounce (8 1/4-inches-deep) of cream-colored organdy.

Dimensions Component (Slip: length excluding shoulder straps x width across top): 46 3/4 x 16 1/2in. (118.7 x 41.9cm) Other (Slip: approximate width across bottom): 39in. (99.1cm)