Title Map of the State of New York

Date 1834

Primary Maker Case & Waters

Medium Engraving; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper, between cardboard covers

Description Map of New York State, with Vermont, Massachusetts, and Connecticut to the east, and Pennsylvania and New Jersey to the south. The state is outlined in pink and divided into counties, colored blue, green, yellow, peach, or pink. Physical features include elevation, conveyed through hachure marks; lakes, including Lake Ontario, Lake Erie, and the Finger Lakes; and rivers. Canals, proposed canals, railroads, and proposed railroads are depicted using different lines. At the bottom of the sheet is a profile of the levels of the Grand Erie Canal. On the right side is an inset map of the Hudsrom River from Albany to New York City. On the inner cover is a list of the counties and their populations in 1820 and 1830.
