Basic Detail Report

Description Map of Salisbury, Connecticut with the state of Massachusetts to the north, the town of Canaan to the east, the town of Sharon to the south, and the state of New York to the west. The Housatonic River forms Salisbury's eastern boundary. The town is divided into thirteen districts. Roads, rivers, ponds, and mountains are indicated. Elevation is shown by hachure marks. Villages include Chapinville, Falls Village, Lime Rock, and Mount Riga. Separate inset maps at the bottom provide greater detail for the villages of Lakeville and Salisbury. All maps include the names of property owners and businesses. Vignettes surrounding the maps depict the Congregational Church and parsonage, William Bushnell's

Hotel, A. J. Wardwell's Hotel, Ames Iron Works, the Landon Company Furnace, the Barnum Richardson and Company Iron Foundry, D. Clapp's Buildings, and the residences of H. Ames, R. Bostwick, Messrs. Read and Woodworth, Horace Landon, A. H. Holley, William H. Barnum, Leonard Richardson, M. B. Coffing, S. C.

Scoville, Dea. Chittenden, J. H. Hubbard, Mrs. M. A. Holley, Walter F. Whittlesey,
