

Basic Detail Report

Title South view of the residence of the late Gov. Griswold Lyme.

Date 1835

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description Two-story house with wings on either side, a pedimented porch and a fence in the foreground. The house was built by Roger Griswold, the last Governor by that name. Inscribed, "about 40 rods in / Northern course first. 1803 built. Mathew Griswold now resident in the town a descendent of the gv."

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 6 11/16 x 7 7/8in. (17 x 20cm)