

Basic Detail Report

Title Northern view New Hartford (north village).

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description View of New Hartford from the Albany Turnpike (later Rt. 44). A man and a horse-drawn wagon are in the road, which is bordered by fences. The Congregational Church is at the far right. In the background is Bare Spot Mountain, also known as Jones Mountain.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 4 5/16in. (9 x 11cm)