

Basic Detail Report

Title Quilt for Mrs. Molod

Date 1987

Primary Maker Bugbee School

Medium cotton, ink

Description Double-sided quilt with blocks made from self-portraits drawn by Ann Molod's kindergarten class. Blocks are sewn together with dark blue fabric with white polka dots, and tied with red embroidery floss. Several squares are embroidered: two with a frog's head with the words Leap Into Literature in green thread around the image; one with a floral vine along the top and the words "May You Be Blessed With the Best!" in red and then signed by Judy Oudek and Pay Powers in green thread; one in red thread with the words "Bugbee School June 1987"; two in red thread with the words "To Teach is to touch a life forever . . ."; one in red thread with the words "Mrs. Molod - our Super Kindergarten Teacher"; and one with a smiling bumble bee in yellow and black, with the words in yellow thread "The Pride of Achievement".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) 59 in. x (Width) 49 in. (149.9 x 124.5cm)