

Basic Detail Report

Title Petticoat

Date about 1900-1910

Primary Maker Hofer family

Medium Machine-stitched cotton and rayon with a hook and eye

Description Woman's petticoat, cut in a circle for a broad flare. The fabric is a coarsely woven cotton, very stiffly starched. The bottom edge is raw. The waistband is 3/4 inch wide and is made of ecru rayon. It fastens with a single hook and eye.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x diameter): 39 3/4 x 153in. (101 x 388.6
cm)