

Basic Detail Report

Title Ink Bottle

Basic Detail Report

Date late 19th-early 20th century

Primary Maker Denby & Codnor-Park Potteries

Medium Wheel-thrown stoneware with a light brown salt glaze

Description Grey stoneware ink bottle with a cone collar rim, sloping neck and shoulder, cylindrical body, and curved bottom. The ink bottle is glazed on the interior and exterior with a light brown salt glaze. To one side, near the bottom of the ink bottle, is an impressed mark, "VITREOUS STONE BOTTLES, CO./ WARRANTED NOT TO ABSORB,/ J. BOURNE & SON,/ PATENTEES./ DENBY & CODNOR PARK POTTERIES/ NEAR DERBY". There is one chip in the bottom edge of the ink bottle, revealing the stoneware below.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x diameter): 9 x 3 1/2in. (22.9 x 8.9cm)