

Basic Detail Report

Title Jenny Lind Sings in Hartford

Date 1947

Primary Maker HH Art Studios Inc.

Basic Detail Report

Medium Drawing; ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description Drawing of a woman, meant to be the singer Jenny Lind, stepping off a train. She is wearing a hat and waving a handkerchief at a crowd of men and women that appear to be greeting her. The women are wearing hats, and some of the men also have hats. One woman holds a bouquet of flowers. Parts of flags are visible flying off to the right.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 21 7/8 x 14 15/16in. (55.6 x 37.9 cm)