Title A Plan of the Town and Harbour of Boston

Date 1963

Primary Maker Meriden Gravure Company

Medium Collotype; black printer's ink and watercolor on paper

Description Reproduction of a map of Boston, depicting the locations of the British and American troops in battles at Lexington and Concord and Bunker Hill, the army encampments, and the positions of ships in the harbor. The routes of the Minutemen, shown in blue coats and carrying rifles, are delineated at the top of the map. Below the title on the left side, there is a list of references that correspond to numbers found on the map, most of them clustered in and around the harbor area, that describe the ships, forts, batteries and events of the battles.
