Medium Drawing; black ink on paper, lined with linen

Description Survey of the lots of land along a highway in Litchfield. The lots are labeled with the owner's name; the degrees, minutes and seconds of each boundary line; and the area in acres. Buildings, such as houses or barns, are noted, as are the locations of stones, springs and walls. Dotted lines indicate the locations of stone walls.
