

Basic Detail Report

Title Westville (New Haven)

Date probably 1835

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description The steep trap rock cliffs of West Rock are on the right, with the village of Westville at its foot. The road that leads steeply downhill in the foreground later became Whalley Avenue. It crosses the West River on a bridge. Most of the houses of Westville lie beyond the bridge. The "Congregational Ch[urch]" and the "Methodist Ch[urch]" are identified by notations. Details of the Congregational Church and two other buildings are above the main drawing.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 7/8 x 9 13/16in. (20 x 25cm)
