

Basic Detail Report

Title Horse-drawn bakery cart, Hartford

Date 1896-1897

Primary Maker J. Sigall

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Young man in suit, vest and cap, holding a basket, stands beside a delivery wagon drawn by a horse. Signs on the side of the wagon read: "Charter Oak / Bakery / M. Dobmeier / 121 Front St." "Cakes & Pies" "Home Made Bread."

Most of the brick buildings in the background appear to be residential, but a small one-room [?] shop directly behind the cart has a hanging sign that reads: "J. Forestiere / [Made] to Order.."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 7/8in. (13 x 20cm)