Title The Harvard and Columbia Boat-Race at New London,

Connecticut

Date 1883

Primary Maker Charles Dater Weldon

Medium Wood engraving; printer's ink on wove paper

Description Four views of the Harvard-Columbia boat race in New London, Connecticut. Three vignettes at the top of the sheet show Columbia students looking at the river through binoculars and a telescope, the Columbia crew carrying a shell out of a boat house, and Harvard students on a porch looking through a telescope with a boat house in the background. In the main image, a crew rows their shell past a pennant in the foreground. Another shell, several sailboats and rowboats are in the background. Spectators stand on the far shore.
