

this, Mister, is an Easter seal

It's only a small piece of crinkly edged paper with a back that's mighty sticky when it gets wet . . .

Maybe it doesn't look like much, but I know a lot of kids who see plenty in this little Easter seal . . .

They see wheel chairs and crutches to help them get out and do things— They see a school, and others see a ride to school . . .

Lots of them see camp . . . camp in the summer, good hot sunshine, real trees, acres of sweet-smelling green grass, and swimming, playing . . . like other kids . . .

But don't get me wrong, mister—they don't really see all this. These kids just dream it, because that's what they can have with the dollars you spend for Easter seals . . .
