Title The Fish That Got Away

Date 1946

Primary Maker Louis Grosvernor Frink

Basic Detail Report

Medium Drawing; pencil, watercolor, and gouache on brown paper on cardboard

Description A man wearing a brown hat and matching attire, accented by a white collar and a tan satchel, stands amid tall grass holding a fishing rod. His hands are spread apart, either to show the size of a fish or to express bewilderment. The bottom right corner reads "The Big One" written in paint and blending with the landscape.
