

Basic Detail Report

Title Persuasion Better than Force.

Date 1830-1840

Primary Maker D. W. Kellogg & Co.

Medium Lithography; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Two boys mounted on donkeys are in the street of a town or city.

The boy on the left holds a stick with a bunch of leafy greens and possibly carrots at the end in front of his donkey, which is galloping towards the left in his attempt to reach the vegetables. With his left hand, the boy waves his hat in the air. He wears a shirt, jacket, pants, and boots. He is riding bareback. The boy at the right is beating his donkey with a stick which he holds in his right hand. He wears a pointed cap, a shirt, pants, and boots. His donkey has a saddle and a bridle with blinders on it. A third boy leans his back against the donkey on the right. He braces his feet against a pile of lumber, or possibly a board fence, and rests his left hand on a barrel. A stone house with diamond-paned windows and a second building, possibly a church, are in the background. A board fence is at the far left with trees beyond.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 7 15/16 x 10 3/4in. (20.2 x 27.3cm) Sheet (height x width): 10 1/4 x 12 7/8in. (26 x 32.7cm)