containing two inscriptions positioned side by side, over seven rows of family details on the bottom. The inscriptions are, from left to right, a religious verse "Jesus permit thy gracious name to stand/ As the first efforts of an infants hand/ And while her fingers o'er this canvas move/ Engage her tender heart to seek they love/ With thy dear children let her share a part/ And write thy name thyself upon her heart" and "Clarissa Fox/ ag'd 12 years/ Feb. 21 1835". The second inscription is in a heart-shaped cartouche. The background section of the second alphabet is solidly stitched. There is a solidly stitched horizontal rectangle worked in Algerian eye stitches at the end of the third alphabet. The family details are on the left side of the bottom section of the register; the right side is empty. The two sides in this section are separated with a straight vertical line. There is a Greek key horizontal line after the first alphabet. Certain lines of alphabets and text are separated by various narrow borders, including straight and meandering lines. The register has a four-sided border. The register has a 2 /8-inch double-turned hem on the top and bottom edges, and selvages on both sides. On the back of the register there is paper residue at all four edges from where it was once attached to a surface. The register is not framed or mounted.

Letters and Numbers: There are three alphabets and the numbers 1-9. The letters are uppercase script in alphabet 1, uppercase block in alphabet 2, and lowercase block in alphabet 3. The letters J and U are present in all alphabets. Alphabet 2 ends at Y. The letter 's' is repeated in the lowercase alphabet. All of the uppercase letters in the inscriptions and family details are in script form. The embroiderer uses long 's'. Stitches: The principal stitch on the register is cross
