

Basic Detail Report

Title Plumbing class, Hillyer Institute, Y.M.C.A., Hartford, 1898.

Date 1898

Primary Maker F. M. Johnson

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Eight young men and boys stand at workbenches working on different kinds of pipes. Tools, including a vise and a file, are on the tables. A sink and what appears to be a water heater are in the background. Most of the men wear vests and neckties. One man wears a turtleneck jersey. A boy wears a cap, a striped shirt and suspenders. A blackboard at the back of the room reads "Hillyer Inst[itute]" Electric light bulbs hang from wires.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 7/8 x 9 13/16in. (20 x 25cm)