

Basic Detail Report

GREATER NEW BRITAIN ARTS ALLIANCE PRESENTS:

Arts After Hours ICCD COORDINATED PERFORMANCE

Featuring
Traditional folk and classical dances by
The Lao Nothasin Dance Company
of New Britain

Wednesday, October 21, 1998
5:00 - 7:00 pm
Performances at 5:30 and 6:00 pm
$5 suggested donation

- Serving traditional Asian foods and beverages
- Enter drawing to win free tickets to local arts events

Join your business associates, friends and community members for an exciting evening of Asian art and culture.

Audiences will enjoy the Hoyn Phon Yhia welcome dance, the Pow Lao tribal dance and the Fon Tien candle dance where graceful movements made by the dancers reflect qualities of beauty, respect and politeness so valued in Laotian culture.

Hai An Pagoda • Buddhist Association of Connecticut
255 Cherry Street, New Britain, Connecticut
Cars can be parked in a small parking lot behind the building or on both sides of Cherry Street. Directions on back.

Sponsored in part by:
Greater New Britain Arts Alliance • The Greater Hartford Arts Council
Dr. Michele Imossi - Central Connecticut Chiropractic

Please be prepared to remove your shoes. For more information, call: 832-8299

Title Flyers: Lao Dance Performance at the Buddhist Association of Connecticut

Date 1998

Medium paper

Description Flyers for (a) Arts After Hours, October 21, 1998 and (b) Directions to

Hai An Pagoda, Buddhist Association of Connecticut. A dance performance

Basic Detail Report

organized as part of the Inner City Cultural Development Program (renamed the Urban Artists Initiative), by New Britain coordinator Manola Sidara.