

Basic Detail Report

Title WWII Uniform

Date 1943-1945

Primary Maker Irving Hugh Norton

Medium wool, synthetic fibers, brass, plastic

Description Irving H. Norton's World War II United States Army uniform. (a)

United States Army Officer's Winter Service Uniform Jacket PQD Spec. 14B in olive drab shade 51 with 1942 specification cloth belt. The jacket is made of elastique wool. Single breasted coat with two pleated patch pockets with button down flaps on the chest and two lower hanging waist pockets with button down

Basic Detail Report

flaps. The jacket has an open knotted collar and is closed at the front with buttons, three of 2-piece gilded brass and one of plastic. There are epaulets on each shoulder with 2-piece gilded brass buttons. The coat is fully lined with

Rayon. (b) U.S. Army Enlisted Men's Garrison Cap, PQD Specification QMC 8-

114B, olive drab in color, size 6 7/8", manufactured by the Mid-City Uniform Cap

Company. The cap is piped.

Dimensions Bodice: 19 × 33in. (48.3 × 83.8cm)