

A detailed engraving of a large, symmetrical tree, likely representing a genealogical or historical chart. The tree has a thick, central trunk that branches out into numerous smaller branches, which further divide into a dense canopy of leaves. The roots are visible at the base, spreading out horizontally. The entire tree is rendered in a fine, engraved style. At the base of the trunk, the text "Gospel & ret." is inscribed. To the right of the trunk, near the base, there is a small rectangular box containing the text "Faintly inscribed". The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear, particularly along the edges.
