

Basic Detail Report

Title Site of the Revolutionary Foundry, Salisbury, Connecticut

Date 1854

Primary Maker S. E. Brown

Medium Wood-engraving; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description A man stands beside a stone wall looking at a complex of industrial buildings including a mill with an overshot waterwheel. A bell and a flagpole or lightning rod are on the roof of a building with a brick basement. Wagon wheels and lumber are beside a small frame building at the right. A leafless tree is beside what may be a pile of slag.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 5 3/4 x 9 1/2in. (14.6 x 24.1cm) Sheet (height x width): 7 1/2 x 10 1/2in. (19.1 x 26.7cm)