

Basic Detail Report

Title Colton's Connecticut with portions of New York and Rhode Island

Date 1855

Primary Maker J. H. Colton & Co.

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of Connecticut, the western portion of Rhode Island and the eastern portion of New York, with the border of Massachusetts to the north and Long Island and the Long Island Sound to the south. Connecticut is divided into counties, separated by broken solid and dotted lines and colored green, pink or yellow, and towns, separated by solid lines. Elevation is conveyed through hachure marks. Other natural features shown include rivers and islands. Common roads are marked with double parallel lines. Railroads are depicted, including the New York and Harlem; Long Island; New York and New Haven;

Basic Detail Report

Danbury and Norwalk; Housatonic; Naugatuck; New York and Boston Air Line;

Hartford, Providence and Fishkill; New Haven and New London; Willimantic and

Palmer, and Norwich and Worcester Railroads. On the back is a page of information about New York State.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 12 7/8 x 15 5/8in. (32.7 x

39.7cm) Sheet (height x width): 14 1/2 x 17 1/2in. (36.8 x 44.5cm)