

Basic Detail Report

Title Sunny Days, South Britain (Southbury)

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Burton H. Hubbell

Basic Detail Report

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper on cardboard mount

Description A man and a boy fish from a small boat or punt in the Pomperaug River. The man, who has a mustache and wears a hat and tie, stands at the left holding a fishing pole. The boy, who wears short pants, sits at the left holding a can and a net. The stream is shallow and rocky. Trees overhang the banks.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 8 1/4 x 6 5/16in. (21 x 16cm)