

Basic Detail Report

Title Mansion House, Tolland

Date about 1885

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper

Description Two-story frame hotel building painted in contrasting colors. Three men stand on the porch. One wears overalls. Two women, both wearing aprons, stand on the second-story balcony, which has a banister railing. A sign reads:

"Mansion House." Two trees to the right of the building appear to be hemlocks.

The leafless trees at the left appear to be elms. The large building at the right appears to be a barn or stable. There is a dirt road in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 1/16in. (13 x 18cm)