

Basic Detail Report

Title Alfred C. Clark, Engraver

Date after 1898

Medium Cardstock

Description Trade card for Alfred C. Clark, engraver, in office 45 of the Sage-Allen building in Hartford, Connecticut. In the center of the card is the armor of a knight (upper body) wearing a crown, with a leaf design on each side of its helmet. On the upper left is a seal with the letters HSC in gold on a blue background. On the upper right is a seal with the letters EEG in gold on a purple background. To the lower left of the armor, the card reads, "Wedding invitations, reception and calling cards." To the lower right of the armor, it reads, "Fine business cards, dies for stationary, crests, coats of arms."

Dimensions Sheet (Height x Width): 2 1/2 x 4 1/8in. (6.4 x 10.5cm)