

A vintage quilt panel with a central illustration of a farm scene. The scene includes a brown cow in a field, a large green tree, a small house with a red roof, and a red bird. The quilt is made of light blue fabric. Surrounding the central panel are four circular medallions: the top right one is red with a white 'B', the bottom left one is red with 'G. FOX' in white, the bottom right one is red with 'AUERFARM' in white, and the bottom center one is white with 'B. J. A.' in blue.

Date circa 1946

Primary Maker Georgette Auerbach

Medium rayon, fabric dye

Description Square pink scarf with the center dyed to represent Georgette

Koopman's two children, Rena and George. Floral border on the left of the image of the children and a pastoral scene on the right. Georgette's name in script appears in a banner at the top of the center medallion while at the bottom is written 17 Brookside Boulevard. The rolled hems are hand sewn.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) 34 x (Width) 33in. (86.4 x 83.8cm)