

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Mark V. Foster

Date 2000 November 5

Primary Maker Mark V. Foster

Medium digitized audio cassette tape

Description (.1-.2) Two audio cassette tapes of an interview with Mark V. Foster, who was interviewed by Fiona Vernal on November 5, 2000. (.3-.4) Black and white portrait photographs of Mark V. Foster. Topics discussed include early memories of childhood in Jamaica, such as Rastafarians, church, and school; myths about America; first impressions of America; what makes him Jamaican;

Basic Detail Report

West Indian work ethic and Foster's passion for music; music and West Indian culture; motivations for going back to Jamaica; generational visions of the West Indian Social Club; grooming leaders for the West Indian Social Club and generational differences; working in tobacco over the summers with Jamaican contract workers; Cayasco, an organization for the younger generation of West Indians; relations between Jamaicans and other West Indians; routing the West Indian Parade to downtown Hartford; and "being Jamaican". Tape 1: 2013.26.2.1 a-d consists of two sides, the tape, and a J-card. Tape 2: 2013.26.2.2a-c consists of one side, the tape, and a J-card. 2013.26.2.3-.4: photographs

Dimensions Duration (tape 1, side 1): 45 Minutes, 47 Seconds Duration (tape 1, side 2): 43 Minutes, 25 Seconds Duration (tape 2): 31 Minutes, 53 Seconds

Duration (total runtime): 2 Hours, 1 Minutes, 6 Seconds