Basic Detail Report

Description Collage of photographs and the winning baseball from a game between Collinsville and Unionville. The photographs are group shots of the teams. Most of the people are identified, either in inscriptions on the mats of the photographs or on separate pieces of paper next to them. At the bottom, there is a written description of the game, which took place on August 18, 1900. In the middle, there is a small shelf containing the winning baseball.
