

Basic Detail Report

Title Hartford Wolf Pack Hockey Team

Date after 2000

Medium cardstock, printed ink

Description A postcard featuring a photograph of the Hartford Wolf Pack hockey team. Printed in black on reverse, "Since 1997, the Hartford Wolf Pack have / served as the top developmental team / of the NHL's New York Rangers. Playing / more than 40 games a year at one of / the American Hockey League's premier / facilities, the Hartford Civic Center, the / Wolf Pack reached the pinnacle of AHL / success when they captured / the presti- / gious Calder Cup in 2000, bringing the / city of Hartford its first-ever pro hockey / championship. In the club's first three / seasons, 41 different Wolf Pack players / went on to see action in the NHL, / demonstrating Madison Square Garden's / commitment to excellence both in New / York and in Hartford."

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 × 7in. (12.7 × 17.8

cm)