Title Boy's Boots

Date about 1855-1860

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Hand-stitched and pegged leather

Description Little boy's boots, made of dark leather and styled with the front of the leg sloping up from the side seam so that it is higher than the back of the leg. The top of this front leg panel is a separate piece of leather, embossed with fine crosshatching. The side seams are stitched with an extra narrow strip of leather inserted like piping. The boot straps are loops of leather, stitched behind the side seams inside the boot. The toes are round, and the soles are straight. The soles and low, stacked heels are pegged. The boots are unlined.
