Title Woman's Boots

Date late 19th Century

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched silk velvet, cotton sateen, silk grosgrain ribbons, rabbit fur, and leather

Description Black velvet boots, lined with quilted white sateen. The boots have a front opening, which ties closed with black grosgrain ribbons. This opening and the top edge of the boots are trimmed with black rabbit fur. The opening is backed with a black velvet tongue, which is also lined with the quilted sateen. The toe shape is oval. The leather sole is straight, and indented at the waist so that the boot fits snugly over a heeled shoe.
