

Basic Detail Report

Title Flood Waters Between Buildings with Tree, Hartford

Date 1936

Primary Maker Thomas F. Oakes

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Elevated view of flood waters between two brick buildings. There is a fire escape next to the windows at the side of the left building. There are leafless branches of a tree visible in the foreground, and several trees visible in the distance, probably part of Bushnell Park.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 4 1/8 x 2 3/8in. (10.5 x 6cm) Sheet (height x width): 4 1/2 x 2 3/4in. (11.4 x 7cm)