Primary Maker Sharpe Hill Vineyard

Medium Glass, paper, ink

Description Frosted glass bottle, with blue foil and gold stripe label around the neck. The paper label on the main part of the label goes about three-quartes of the way around. A folk art painting of a boy with a small bird surrounded by a thin blue line and thicker gold border is on the front of the label. Directly below the picture printed in gold is, "SHARPE HILL / AMERICAN WHITE WINE / ALC. 12% BY VOL." To the left of the picture at the side, printed in gold script is, "Ballet / of / Angels", printed in black, " 'Francis O. Watts / with Bird', 1805 / by John Brewster Jr. / New York State / Historical Association / Cooperstown"; "Ballet of Angels / is a Fruity, Semi-Dry / White Wine / 'Enjoy a Glass / of Angels Anytime.' " Printed in black on the side, to the right of the picture, "PRODUCED AND BOTTLED BY SHARPE HILL VINEYARD, POMFRET, CT". The standard government alcohol warning is below, and then below that is, "CONTAINS SULFITES".
