Title Backyard, probably 237 Church Street, New Haven

Date after 1907

Primary Maker George Grant MacCurdy

Medium Photography; autochrome on glass sealed with black paper tape

Description View from a terrace with a stone balustrade overlooking a grassy lawn surrounded by a path. Flowers, including roses, are in a circular flower bed in the center of the yard and in two curved parterres adjoining the path. The flowering shrub at the left appears to be a lilac. A greenhouse and a brick building are in the background, partially concealed by large trees. Utility wires cross the upper part of the image.
