Basic Detail Report

Title Infant's Dress

Date about 1820

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Hand-stitched cotton

Basic Detail Report

Description Infant's dress of very sheer, white cotton. It has a wide, square neckline controlled by a drawstring. It is open down the entire length of the center back. The waist is defined by two encased drawstrings. The short sleeves are gathered at the shoulder. The lower skirt is decorated with three 3/8-inch-wide tucks and whitework embroidery in a paisley design. The edges of the back opening are embroidered with whitework sprigs.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 24 1/2 x 18in. (62.2 x 45.7cm)