Date 1840-1844

Primary Maker Louis Léopold Boilly

Medium Lithography; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description A young woman, seen in profile, sits in an upholstered armchair. She kisses the cheek of a young man who leans down to kiss a young girl on the forehead. Two younger children lean against the woman's lap. One of them kisses the other on the cheek. The woman wears a dress or dressing gown with a lace collar and a scarf. A fringed shawl is draped over the back of her chair. All of the children appear to wear skirts. Two appear to wear collars trimmed with ruffles. The man wears a coat and trousers. A vase of flowers, probably roses, is on a table or console at the left. There appears to be a paneled door in the right background.
