Basic Detail Report

Title Boy's Pants

Date about 1875-1900

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched silk and cotton, with porcelain buttons and non-ferrous metal buckles

Description Boy's short pants of cream-colored satin, made to look "colonial" by the addition of decorative buckles at the outside of the knee. The pants have a button fly front and have white porcelain buttons stitched around the waist for attaching the suspenders. There is no waistband. The pants are fitted in the back with darts. The pants are fully lined with plain, white cotton.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width across top): 22 1/4 x 13in. (56.5 x 33cm)