Basic Detail Report

Title Boy's Sweater

Date about 1900-1925

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-knitted and machine-stitched wool with mother of pearl buttons and silk ribbon

Description Small boy's red wool cardigan sweater with a wide, square, turn-down collar. The center front opening fastens from the neck to the hem with five mother of pearl (5/8-inch diameter) shank buttons. The sleeves are long and straight and have ribbing at the wrists. The opening edges are reinforced on the back with a strip of 1 1/8-inch-wide red silk ribbon.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (center back length x width across shoulders):

13 x 10 1/2in. (33 x 26.7cm)