Basic Detail Report

Title Man's Gloves

Date 1861

Primary Maker General Nathaniel Lyon

Medium Hand-stitched white kid leather, with white or off-white silk thread and small copper buttons

Description White kid leather gloves completely hand-stitched with white or off-white silk thread. There are three rows of reinforced stitching along the back of the hand. The cuff of each glove has a slit near the thumb which is closed by means of two small copper buttons, each stamped with an "A" and small welted button holes.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length of each glove): 9in. (22.9cm)