

Basic Detail Report

Title Civil War Monuments in Connecticut

Date 1982-1998

Primary Maker David F. Ransom

Basic Detail Report

Medium Photography; color transparencies on plastic in heavy paper mounts

Description Views of Civil War monuments in Connecticut towns, including

Ansonia, Avon, Barkhamsted, East Berlin, Kensington, Worthington, Bethel,

Branford, Bridgeport, Bristol, Brooklyn, Burlington, Canton, Cheshire, Chester,

Clinton, Colchester, Cornwall, Coventry, Danbury, Darien, Derby, East Haddam,

Moodus, East Hartford, East Haven, East Lyme, Niantic, Enfield, Farmington,

Unionville, Glastonbury, Granby, Greenwich, Griswold, Jewett City, Groton,

Guilford, Haddam, Hamden, Hartford, Hartland, Kent, Killingly, Lebanon,

Ledyard, Litchfield, Madison, Manchester, Meriden, Middletown, Milford,

Naugatuck, New Britain, New Hartford, New Haven, New London, New Milford,

Newtown, Norfolk, North Branford, Northford, North Haven, Norwalk, Norwich,

Old Saybrook, Plainville, Plymouth, Terryville, Portland, Preston, Prospect,

Putnam, Ridgefield, Rocky Hill, Salisbury, Seymour, Sharon, Simsbury, Southington, Stafford, Stamford, Stonington, Stratford, Suffield, Thomaston,

Thompson, Torrington, Union, Vernon, Wallingford, Waterbury, Watertown, West

Haven, Winchester, Winsted, Windsor Locks, Wolcott, and Woodbury. Also includes monuments in Greenfield, Deerfield, and Burlington, Massachusetts, and the monument on the Antietam battlefield, design by Carl Conrads. Includes details and multiple view of most monuments. Included one view of the Revolutionary War monument at Fort Griswold in Groton.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 7/8 x 1 3/8in. (2.2 x 3.5

cm) Mount (height x width): 2 x 2in. (5.1 x 5.1cm)